

Pavement Poetry is an original work of public art, disguising commissioned pieces of writing, from authors such as PD James and Sebastian Faulks, into the streetscape in the form of coalhole covers. This is a map of where to find them.